

BOCHK All Weather Asia Pacific High Income Fund

April 2024 (As of 28 March 2024)

Important Information

1. BOCHK All Weather Asia Pacific High Income Fund (the "Sub-Fund") is a Sub-Fund of BOCHK Wealth Creation Series.
2. The Sub-Fund is to provide income and capital growth over the medium and longer term through active asset allocation in a portfolio of fixed income securities and equity securities which provide higher yield compared to their peers in the Asia Pacific region.
3. Investment involves risks. The Sub-Fund involves significant risks including but not limited to market risk, concentration risk, emerging markets risk, Mainland China market risk, currency risk, equity investment/volatility risk, small-capitalisation/mid-capitalisation companies risk, risks associated with debt securities rated below investment grade or unrated, general risks relating to debt securities (including but not limited to risks such as: credit risk, interest rate risk, volatility and liquidity risk concerning debt securities in the Asia Pacific region, downgrading risk, sovereign debt risk, valuation risk, risk related to credit ratings), RMB currency risk/risks relating to RMB denominated securities, risks relating to dynamic asset allocation strategy, risks associated with distribution out of capital, risks relating to hedging and the hedged classes, etc. Past performance is not indicative of future performance. The value of the Sub-Fund can be volatile. Investors may not get back the full amount of capital invested or may suffer significant loss.
4. The Manager may at its discretion pay distribution out of, or effectively out of, capital of the Sub-Fund. Investors should note that the payment of distributions out of, or effective out of, capital represents a return or withdrawal of part of the amount the investors originally invested or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of, or effectively out of, capital of the Sub-Fund may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value of the relevant classes of units.
5. Investors should not solely rely on this document to make any investment decision. Please refer to the Explanatory Memorandum and the relevant appendix in detail (including the full text of risk factors stated therein) about the Sub-Fund. If you have any questions about the information of this document, please seek independent professional advice.

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to provide income and capital growth over the medium and longer term through active asset allocation in a portfolio of fixed income securities and equity securities which provide higher yield compared to their peers in the Asia Pacific region.

Payment of dividend is not guaranteed. The Manager has the discretion as to whether or not to make any distribution of dividends, the frequency of distribution and the amount of distributions, subject to the SFC's prior approval and not less than one month's prior notice to affected Unitholders. The Manager may at its discretion pay distribution out of, or effectively out of, capital of the Sub-Fund. Investors should note that the payment of distributions out of, or effective out of capital represents a return or withdrawal of part of the amount the investors originally invested or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of, or effectively out of capital of the Sub-Fund may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value of the relevant classes of Units. The information indicated above is for your reference only. Please refer to the "Distributions" section stated in the appendix of the Sub-Fund. The calculation method of annualised yield: $[(1 + \text{Distribution per Share/Price on Ex-date})^{\text{distribution frequency in a year}} - 1]$. A positive distribution yield does not imply a positive return. Investment involves risks. Past performance figures are not indicative of future performance.
